Praise for The Most Trusted Name in Yous:

"Possessing a powerful group dynamic reminiscent of Modest Mouse by way of the Arcade Fire, it should only be a matter of time before Code Pie become one of Canada's prime musical exports."

— Exclaim

"A delightfully expansive indie-rock sound emerges on the second release by this Montreal collective... Trumpets, strings, twinkling guitars and an intuitive attraction to the modestly anthemic make for good times, and feel-good tunes."

— The Montreal Gazette

"Code Pie has crafted an impressive collection of textured tracks that could beck and call any indie enthusiast... Code Pie's take on smart indie is as gorgeous as anything else currently being crafted in Montreal."

— The View (Hamilton)
